Cowboy Talked With Two of the Escaped Convicts.

Nevada City, Cal., July 30.—William Green, a cowboy, who arrived here today, reports having seen two heavily armed men between what is known as Yankee Jim's and the North Fork of the American river in Placer county, seven miles from Colfax. Green talked with the ween for the placer to with the ween for the placer to with the ween for the placer. with the men for ten minutes and in the sheriff's office here he positively iden-tified the photographs of Ed Davis and Joseph Murphy as those of the men he met. Each fellow had two revolvers, one Winchester rifle and a belt filled with cartridges. They were dressed in overalls with plain shirts and were carrying their coats under their arms. Green came upon them on an out of the way path. The smaller of the two greeted him saving: "Hello pard. greeted him, saying: "Hello, pard. how far is it to Colfax?" Green replied seven miles. "Guess we wont go there," said the man.

The men, according to Green, weighed between 159 and 160 pounds. Both were smooth shaven and their hair was cut short. One was about 45 and the other 24 years old, Learning that Green was not an officer, the convicts allowed him

The prisoners were given the midday meal in close confinement, After dinner they quieted down and made no disturbence the vest of the day. no disturbance the rest of the day. They were let out in small squads for supper and this morning the entire 800 were seated at table at once. They made no demonstration, however, and adjourned quietly to their cells. It will be several days, however, before they are let out to their work. It has just been learned that Warden Thomas Wilkinson, immediately after his return to the prison upon being re-leased by his captors last Monday morning, went inside the prison and ordered the 800 convicts back into their cells. Wilkinson was unarried and en-tered the prison alone. The 800 con-victs were shouting and jeering in demonlac glee over the successful out-come of the break and when Wilkin-son came among them they surrounded him. He ordered them to return to their cells. Some of them obeyed on the instant, while others hung back and sulkily sought their quarters. Several openly expressed their satisfaction at

DIPLOMATS PROTESTED.

Spanish Consul in Trouble at La

People are now recalling a prophecy which, at the time it was made, produced considerable talk among the superstitious, who held it to be an indication of who will be the next pope, so much so that several large bets were made in favor of the cardinal indicated by the prophecy. Many years ago the late Cardinal Parocchi, who was not then even a bishop, one day met an old woman in the country. She was a typical witch in appearance and planted herself before Parocchi, saying "The bishop of Santa Rufina will be the next pope."

The woman refused to say anything more. Parocchi repeated the tale, which gained added circulation when he was appointed to that see, and before his death he was considered to be the most likely suggested. of the exequatur, of the Spanish consul. Arizona Man Claims Damages in the Sum of $45,000.

DISTRICT JUDGE SUED.

Los Angeles, Cal., July 30.-J. R. Conoy, a local attorney, brought suit here today against George R. Davis, judge of the First Judicial district of Arizona, for $45,000. Conroy, in his complaint, charges that Judge Davis unlawfully charges that Judge Davis unlawfully required him to withdraw from the United States mail and deposit in court a letter containing two valuable notes. This, it is charged, happened in Arizona in May of this year. These notes were the subject matter of litigation then pending in the district court. Conroy claims that the notes were in his possession as security for attorneys fees due from his client, Beauchamp H. Smith. One of the notes was for the sum of $5,000 and the other for $19,196. Conroy put them in a letter addressed to Los Angeles, out of this court's jurisdiction. For alleged disrespectful language addressed by Conroy to the court, he was fined $100 by roy to the court, he was fined $100 by Judge Davis. He now places his damage from the deprivation of the notes at $35,000 and for the alleged wrong him in the contempt proceeding
